Who we are

Impressive market knowledge meets tailor-made recruitment solutions

When you're faced with a vacancy in your team do you see it as a problem or an opportunity?

Here at Largo Jackson & Partners we'll help you see it as the latter. With decades of experience in the global infrastructure market and an in-depth knowledge of best practice and innovation among your industry peers, we can help you step back and look at things a different way.

We have intricate knowledge of these industries, that's why we've chosen to specialise here. Because we understand that hiring the right people for the right role can have a huge commercial impact on a business. We know it's vital we move quickly and efficiently when it comes to finding and engaging key resources in the industry. Having designed our processes to ensure we can scour the places we're most likely to find the skills and expertise you need. We have the experience and sensitivity to bring those negotiations home.

Executive recruitment is about more than filling vacancies, it's about adding true value to the companies, agencies and individuals we work with. And if we don't feel we can do that for you, it wouldn't be right for us to tell you we can.

How we do what we do

A personal approach to global recruitment

In-demand skills can be hard to find. That's why it pays to put your faith in a trusted partner who has their ear to the ground in your industry.

At Largo Jackson our research team take a detailed and analytical approach so we can be sure the shortlist put in front of you is full of only the highest quality candidates that meet the brief. Once you're happy with the people we've proposed we'll support you through negotiation and subsequent offers with sensitivity and professionalism. One thing's for sure; no matter how rare the skills you require, if you've retained us we won't rest until we find them.

We tasked the Largo Jackson team to find us someone we weren't sure existed. They delivered a strong shortlist and the person we hired has been a big success for us.

How we do what we do

Retained executive search services

We'll learn about your business, the role you're filling and why a candidate should be excited to join you. Then we'll draw up a list of firms to investigate and conduct research to identify any members of staff that might have the skillsets required. Next, we'll proactively approach these individuals, pitch the role to them, invite them to interview and make up a shortlist. Then we'll go through a standard series of interviews followed by negotiations and offers until they sign on the dotted line.

Not ready to retain us?

No problem. We're also happy to work on an executive selection basis around our other commitments. We'll put the feelers out and see if we know anyone who might suit.
